Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy[a] met him. They stood at a distance and called out in a loud voice, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us!"

When he saw them, he said, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were cleansed. One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him—and he was a Samaritan. Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well."

Recently we celebrated Blessed Saint Therese of Lisieux (also known as the Little Flower) who is a Doctor of the Church. Her feast day is October 1st. She was an amazing Saint who died early in life at the age of 24 on the 30th of September 1897. She died in Lisieux, France as a member of the Carmelite Religious Order of Sisters. Her main contribution to the Glory of God and His Church was to give us the "Little Way" to Heaven, which is manifested by offering up our daily trials and tribulations to God as if we were presenting them to Him as a "little flower" of love. Think of when you were a small child and you picked a daisy and gave it to your mother. Think of how your mother gushed with gratitude for that small token of love as if it were the best present she could receive. All of us can do this, by making an offering of love to God, giving "flowers" to Him from our poverty in life. A poverty based on the smallness of our spirits from the opportunities we have to add in small ways to His magnitude.

Might I suggest that it is the little things that bother us the most. When we argue or get upset, when we are perturbed and thrown off into feeling more upset than we should, these moments rule us. I think most married couples experience this with each other regularly. In hindsight we think how dumb it was that we reacted that way. In many ways the devil tempts us to fall prey to temptation to sin by "picking" at us and our sense of right and wrong or justice is thrown off kilter. The "Little Way" offers us a way around these temptations to sin in mind, heart and action by being mindful of self and what is real, true and good. A spirit of mindfulness and a perspective of the good and God's omniscience is required. By reminding ourselves often that little things do matter is the first step.

St. Therese was distracted in prayer and upset by an older sister in chapel. This old nun would rattle her rosary beads against the pew as she prayed during their quiet meditation time. This bothered the Little Flower for some time. Then she thought I am going to offer this up and present it to God as a flower of love. She began to sit behind this nun in chapel and adopted the disturbance as a gift to God instead of an annoyance. A prayer:

O Little Therese of the Child Jesus, please pick for me a rose from the heavenly gardens and send it to me as a message of love. O Little Flower of Jesus, ask God to grant the favors I place with confidence in your hands... (mention in silence here). St. Therese, help me to always believe as you did in God's great love for me, so that I might imitate your "Little Way" each day. AMEN

Two books. The Way of Trust and Love: a retreat guided by St. Therese of Lisieux by Fr. Jacques Philippe and I Believe in Love: a personal retreat based on the teaching of St. Therese of Lisieux by Fr. Jean C. J. D'Elbee. Are must reads.

More to come...

Our Mission Field...

Holy Spirit | Resurrection | St. Joseph | Our Lady of Hope | Marquette Catholic School

We made the very exciting announcement that Our Mission Field's new name is Lumen Christi, which means Light of Christ! Let us all renew our hearts to bear Christ's light to all the world, especially here on the Iron Range.

Family Faith Formation:

We had a fantastic first session. We shared a great meal, had adoration, and prayed for one another. Jesus helped each of us with "the rocks" (our struggles) in our "backpacks" of life. We look forward to our next Family Faith Formation on Wednesday, November 5 at Resurrection Church in Eveleth from 5:30-7:30. If you missed our first session (or registration), no worries, you may attend our next one and still sign-up on Flocknotes.

What to do Wednesday October 8, 15, 22, 29? Set aside Wednesday evenings as a family night. Enjoy a meal together, pray together, play a board game, watch a movie, go for a walk, share your hearts with one another, maybe invite grandparents or neighbors over. Spend quality time together.

What an incredible night of celebration! Marquette Catholic School's "Move with the Spirit 5k" raised $100k and our fundraising efforts for our Faith Formation programs were an incredible success.

We are so grateful for everyone's hard work and dedication to partnering with the Holy Spirit and all that He is about here in Our Mission Field! We cannot wait to see what He has in store for us next!
