Dear Friends,

Congratulations on your engagement! Know that our prayers are with you as you prepare to enter into the lifelong covenant of Holy Matrimony. We hope to help you prepare for a life filled with deep joy and happiness in each other and in Jesus Christ.

There is no more lofty goal that you can have for your spouse than to become a means for getting your spouse to heaven. Marriage, like any vocation, is a call to holiness—a call to become the best person that you can be, the person that God made you to be. Through marriage, each of you will become for the other an instrument through which Christ loves, heals, strengthens, and consoles the other. The grace you will receive in the sacrament of marriage is a reflection of—and has its source in—the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Christ, wherein Christ loved His Bride, the Church, to the fullest.

This booklet primarily contains practical content for the day of your wedding. Through this marriage preparation process, however, you will learn more about the Catholic meaning of marriage, what it entails, and how to live it to the fullest.

We commend your marriage preparation to the Holy Family, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. May you enjoy their intercession and be inspired by their example.

Grace & Peace,

Wedding Guidelines

Membership

Since marriage is a sacrament of the Catholic Church, it is normally celebrated in the parish where the couple worships. Thus, to be married in either Resurrection or St. Joseph, it is normally required that at least one party is:

- already a registered parishioner
- has been a parishioner but has moved from the area
- lives in the area and will now become a parishioner

All other requests for marriage are considered on a case by case basis, since our churches are not simply “rented” for weddings and services.

For couples currently residing outside the Eveleth/Gilbert area, marriage preparation normally takes place at their local Catholic parish.

Preparation Procedures

It is diocesan policy that there be at least 6 months of marriage preparation prior to the date of the wedding. This provides the minimum amount of time to complete the Fully Engaged Survey, attend the Weekend for the Engaged (dates for which can be found at our diocesan website: www.dioceseduluth.org/marriage-and-family-life), as well as the Natural Family Planning (NFP) intro session.

Time of your Wedding

Since we always have a 4pm parish Mass on Saturdays, the latest a Saturday wedding can ordinarily be scheduled is 2pm. Almost all of our weddings occur at this time.

It is preferable not to schedule a wedding during the season of Lent on account of its penitential nature. Normally weddings are not celebrated during Holy Week, Sundays, or Holy Days of Obligation.

Documents Needed

You will need a Minnesota marriage license issued from the county in which you will be married. Upon completion of the marriage preparation, the church can issue a notarized letter which, when presented to the courthouse, is good for a substantial discount on the marriage license fee.

For Catholics - a baptismal certificate issued within the last 6 months from the church of baptism. For those baptized at either Resurrection or St. Joseph simply ask the secretary to verify the record.

For baptized non-Catholics - a baptismal certificate. It need not be recent.

Music

As in all Catholic liturgies, music is sung prayer and it plays an integral role in the wedding ceremony. Because the Mass is the public, official prayer of the Church, the words we sing at Mass matter. Song choices must therefore be consistent with the meaning and purpose of the Mass as a whole.

For this reason, while favorite songs that are popular or secular may hold special meaning for the couple, this type of music is not appropriate for the Mass, nor is the use of recorded music.¹ All song/hymn selections must be chosen from an approved Catholic hymnal to ensure the songs are in keeping with the principles of our faith.² Classical music is also permitted (and most often chosen) for the service, especially the entrance procession.

The liturgy is a complexus of signs expressed by living human beings. Music, being preeminent among these signs, ought to be "live." While recorded music, therefore, might be used to advantage outside the liturgy as an aid in the teaching of new music, it should, as a norm, never be used within the liturgy to replace the congregation, the choir, the organist or other instrumentalists.

Readers and Readings

Suggested Scripture readings drawn from the marriage rite are included in this booklet. Selections to be made include:

- 1 Old Testament Reading
- 1 Responsorial Psalm
- 1 New Testament Reading
- 1 Gospel Reading

The priest or deacon will always proclaim the Gospel. There is need of one to three readers for the Old and New Testament readings, and the Responsorial Psalm if it is not sung. Ordinarily, non-Catholics are not permitted to proclaim the Scriptures at Mass.³

The Rehearsal — Please bring your marriage license to the rehearsal

Rehearsals are normally scheduled the day before the wedding, sometime between 4pm-6pm. Plan on it lasting around 1hr. All members of the wedding are to be present. If someone must be absent, another son may stand in his or her place and instruct the absentee prior to the wedding. Musicians are not usually needed at the rehearsal, but they may practice before the rehearsal begins if they so choose.

Fees and Donations

A donation of $200 is normally given to the church where the wedding is celebrated. This donation should be made prior to the wedding. Additionally, you may choose to make an offering to the celebrating clergy. Organists and vocalists set their own fee so please confer with them on the amount.

After the Wedding

The wedding party is responsible for removing all items brought it not the church facilities (decorations, boxes, etc) and placing all litter in waste baskets. Someone should be placed in charge of making sure the Bride's room is left clean, no forgotten items are left behind, and any additional decorations are removed from the church itself.

³ Directory for the Application of Principles and Norms on Ecumenism, 133

"The reading of Scripture during a Eucharistic celebration in the Catholic Church is to be done by members of that Church. On exceptional occasions and for a just cause, the Bishop of the diocese may permit a member of another Church or ecclesial Community to take on the task of reader."

Guidelines for Receiving Holy Communion

For Catholics

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For Our Fellow Christians

We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (Jn 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 §4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of Communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 §3).

For Those Not Receiving Holy Communion

All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

For Non-Christians

We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

Suggested Readings

At least one reading that explicitly speaks of marriage must always be chosen. These readings are designated by an asterisk.⁴

Old Testament 1*

(Male and female he Created them)

A reading from the Book of Genesis

[Gen. 1:26-28, 31a]

Then God said:

“Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.
Let them have dominion over the fish of the sea,
the birds of the air, and the cattle,
and over all the wild animals
and all the creatures that crawl on the ground.”

God created man in his image;
in the image of God he created him;
male and female he created them.

God blessed them, saying:

“Be fertile and multiply;
fill the earth and subdue it.

Have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air,
and all the living things that move on the earth.”

God looked at everything he had made, and he found it very good.

The word of the Lord.

Old Testament 2*

(The two of them become one body)

A reading from the Book of Genesis

[Gen. 2:18-24]

The Lord God said: “It is not good for the man to be alone.
I will make a suitable partner for him.”

So the Lord God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them;

⁴ Order of Celebrating Matrimony, 144

whatever the man called each of them would be its name.
The man gave names to all the cattle,
all the birds of the air, and all wild animals;
but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man.

So the Lord God cast a deep sleep on the man,
and while he was asleep,
he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh.
The Lord God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man.
When he brought her to the man, the man said:

“This one, at last, is bone of my bones
and flesh of my flesh;
This one shall be called ‘woman,’
for out of ‘her man’ this one has been taken.”

That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one body.

The word of the Lord.

Old Testament 3*

(In his love for Rebekah, Isaac found solace after the death of his mother.)

A reading from the Book of Genesis

[Gen. 24:48-51, 58-67]

The servant of Abraham said to Laban:

“I bowed down in worship to the Lord, blessing the Lord, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me on the right road
to obtain the daughter of my master’s kinsman for his son.
If, therefore, you have in mind to show true loyalty to my master,
let me know;
but if not, let me know that, too.
I can then proceed accordingly.”

Laban and his household said in reply:

“This thing comes from the Lord;
we can say nothing to you either for or against it.
Here is Rebekah, ready for you;
take her with you,

that she may become the wife of your master's son,
as the Lord has said."

So they called Rebekah and asked her,

"Do you wish to go with this man?"

She answered, "I do."

At this they allowed their sister Rebekah and her nurse to take leave,

along with Abraham's servant and his men.

Invoking a blessing on Rebekah, they said:

"Sister, may you grow into thousands of myriads;

And may your descendants gain possession of the gates of their enemies!"

Then Rebekah and her maids started out;

they mounted their camels and followed the man.

So the servant took Rebekah and went on his way.

Meanwhile Isaac had gone from Beer-lahai-roi and was living in the region of the Negeb.

One day toward evening he went out . . . in the field,

and as he looked around, he noticed that camels were approaching.

Rebekah, too, was looking about, and when she saw him,

she alighted from her camel and asked the servant,

"Who is the man out there, walking through the fields toward us?"

"That is my master," replied the servant.

Then she covered herself with her veil.

The servant recounted to Isaac all the things he had done.

Then Isaac took Rebekah into his tent;

he married her, and thus she became his wife.

In his love for her Isaac found solace

after the death of his mother Sarah.

The word of the Lord.

*(May the Lord of heaven prosper you both.
May he grant you mercy and peace.)*

A reading from the Book of Tobit

[Tob. 7:6-14]

Raphael and Tobiah entered the house of Raguel and greeted him.
Raguel sprang up and kissed Tobiah, shedding tears of joy.
But when he heard that Tobit had lost his eyesight,
he was grieved and wept aloud.

He said to Tobiah:

“My child, God bless you!

You are the son of a noble and good father.

But what a terrible misfortune

that such a righteous and charitable man should be afflicted with blindness!”

He continued to weep in the arms of his kinsman Tobiah.

His wife Edna also wept for Tobit;

and even their daughter Sarah began to weep.

Afterward, Raguel slaughtered a ram from the flock and gave them a cordial reception.

When they had bathed and reclined to eat,

Tobiah said to Raphael, “Brother Azariah, ask Raguel to let me marry my kinswoman Sarah.”

Raguel overheard the words;

so he said to the boy:

“Eat and drink and be merry tonight, for no man is more entitled to marry my daughter Sarah than you, brother.

Besides, not even I have the right to give her to anyone but you, because you are my closest relative.

But I will explain the situation to you very frankly.

I have given her in marriage to seven men,

all of whom were kinsmen of ours,
and all died on the very night they approached her.

But now, son, eat and drink.

I am sure the Lord will look after you both.”

Tobiah answered, “I will eat or drink nothing until you set aside what belongs to me.”

Raguel said to him: "I will do it.
She is yours according to the decree of the Book of Moses.
Your marriage to her has been decided in heaven!
Take your kinswoman
 from now on you are her love,
 and she is your beloved.
She is yours today and ever after.
And tonight, son, may the Lord of heaven prosper you both.
May he grant you mercy and peace."
Then Raguel called his daughter Sarah, and she came to him.
He took her by the hand and gave her to Tobiah with the words:
 "Take her according to the law.
According to the decree written in the Book of Moses she is your wife.
Take her and bring her back safely to your father.
And may the God of heaven grant both of you peace and prosperity."
He then called her mother and told her to bring a scroll, so that he might draw up a marriage contract stating that he gave Sarah to Tobiah as his wife
 according to the decree of the Mosaic law.
Her mother brought the scroll,
 and he drew up the contract,
 to which they affixed their seal.
Afterward they began to eat and drink.
The word of the Lord.

Old Testament 5*

(Allow us to live together to a happy old age.)

A reading from the Book of Tobit

[Tob. 8:4b-8]

On their wedding night Tobiah arose from bed and said to his wife,
 "Sister, get up. Let us pray and beg our Lord to have mercy on us and to grant us deliverance."
Sarah got up, and they started to pray and beg that deliverance might be theirs.
They began with these words:
"Blessed are you, O God of our fathers;
 praised be your name forever and ever.
Let the heavens and all your creation

praise you forever.
You made Adam and you gave him his wife Eve
to be his help and support;
and from these two the human race descended.
You said, 'It is not good for the man to be alone;
let us make him a partner like himself.'
Now, Lord, you know that I take this wife of mine not because of lust,
but for a noble purpose.
Call down your mercy on me and on her,
and allow us to live together to a happy old age."
They said together, "Amen, amen."

The word of the Lord.

Old Testament 6*

(The woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.)

A reading from the Book of Proverbs

[Pro. 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31]

When one finds a worthy wife,
her value is far beyond pearls.
Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.
She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.
She obtains wool and flax
and makes cloth with skillful hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her fingers ply the spindle.
She reaches out her hands to the poor,
and extends her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.
Give her a reward of her labors,
and let her works praise her at the city gates.

The word of the Lord.

(Stern as death is love.)

A reading from the Song of Songs

[Son. 2:8-10, 14, 16a; 8:6-7a]

Hark! my lover—here he comes springing across the mountains, leaping across the hills.

My lover is like a gazelle or a young stag.

Here he stands behind our wall, gazing through the windows,
peering through the lattices.

My lover speaks; he says to me,

“Arise, my beloved, my dove, my beautiful one, and come!

“O my dove in the clefts of the rock,
in the secret recesses of the cliff,

Let me see you,

let me hear your voice,

For your voice is sweet,
and you are lovely.”

My lover belongs to me and I to him.

He says to me:

“Set me as a seal on your heart,
as a seal on your arm;

For stern as death is love,
relentless as the nether world is devotion;
its flames are a blazing fire.

Deep waters cannot quench love,
nor floods sweep it away.”

The word of the Lord.

Old Testament 8*

(Like the sun rising in the Lord’s heavens, the beauty of a virtuous wife is the radiance of her home.)

A reading from the Book of Sirach

[Sir. 26:1-4, 13-16]

Blessed the husband of a good wife, twice-lengthened are his days;
A worthy wife brings joy to her husband,
peaceful and full is his life.
A good wife is a generous gift bestowed upon him who fears the Lord;
Be he rich or poor, his heart is content,
and a smile is ever on his face.
A gracious wife delights her husband,
her thoughtfulness puts flesh on his bones;
A gift from the Lord is her governed speech,
and her firm virtue is of surpassing worth.
Choicest of blessings is a modest wife, priceless her chaste soul.
A holy and decent woman adds grace upon grace;
indeed, no price is worthy of her temperate soul.
Like the sun rising in the Lord's heavens,
the beauty of a virtuous wife is the radiance of her home.

The word of the Lord.

Old Testament 9

(I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.)

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

[Jer. 31:31-32a, 33-34a]

The days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel
and the house of Judah.
It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers:
the day I took them by the hand to lead them forth from the land of Egypt.
But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord.
I will place my law within them, and write it upon their hearts;
I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives
how to know the Lord.
All, from least to greatest, shall know me, says the Lord.

The word of the Lord.

[Psalm 33:12 and 18, 20-21, 22]

℟ The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

Blessed the nation whose God is the Lord,
the people he has chosen as his heritage.
Yes, the Lord's eyes are on those who fear him,
who hope in his merciful love. ℟

Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
He is our help and our shield.
In him do our hearts find joy.
We trust in his holy name. ℟

May your merciful love be upon us, as we hope in you, O Lord. ℟

[Psalm 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9]

℟ I will bless the Lord at all times.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
praise of him is always in my mouth.
In the Lord my soul shall make its boast;
the humble shall hear and be glad. ℟

Glorify the Lord with me;
together let us praise his name.
I sought the Lord, and he answered me;
from all my terrors he set me free. ℟

Look toward him and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.
This lowly one called; the Lord heard,
and rescued him from all his distress. ℟

The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who fear him, to rescue them.
Taste and see that the Lord is good.
Blessed the man who seeks refuge in him. ℟

Responsorial Psalm 3

[Psalm 103:1-2, 8 and 13, 17-18a]

℟ The Lord is kind and merciful.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and all within me, his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and never forget all his benefits. ℟

The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger and rich in mercy.
As a father has compassion on his children,
the Lord's compassion is on those who fear him. ℟

But the mercy of the Lord is everlasting upon those who hold him in fear, upon children's children his righteousness,
for those who keep his covenant. ℟

Responsorial Psalm 4

[Psalm 112:1bc-2, 3-4, 5-7a, 7bc-8, 9]

℟ Blessed the man who greatly delights in the Lord's commands.

Blessed the man who fears the Lord,
who takes great delight in his commandments.

His descendants shall be powerful on earth;
the generation of the upright will be blest. ℟

Riches and wealth are in his house;
his righteousness stands firm forever.
A light rises in the darkness for the upright;
he is generous, merciful, and righteous. ℟

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice.

He will never be moved;
forever shall the righteous be remembered.

He has no fear of evil news. ℟

With a firm heart, he trusts in the Lord.
With a steadfast heart he will not fear;
he will see the downfall of his foes. ℟

Openhanded, he gives to the poor;
his righteousness stands firm forever.
His might shall be exalted in glory. R

Responsorial Psalm 5

[Psalm 128:1-2, 3, 4-5ac and 6a]

R Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Blessed are all who fear the Lord,
and walk in his ways!
By the labor of your hands you shall eat.
You will be blessed and prosper. R

Your wife like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house;
your children like shoots of the olive around your table. R

Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord.
May the Lord bless you from Zion
all the days of your life!
May you see your children's children. R

Responsorial Psalm 6

[Psalm 145:8-9, 10 and 15, 17-18]

R How good is the Lord to all.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in mercy.
How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. R

All your works shall thank you, O Lord, and all your faithful ones bless you.
The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in due season. R

The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his deeds.
The Lord is close to all who call him, who call on him in truth. R

[Psalm 148:1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-13ab, 13c-14a]

℟* Let all praise the name of the Lord.

Praise the Lord from the heavens;
praise him in the heights.

Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his hosts. *℟

Praise him, sun and moon;
praise him, all shining stars.

Praise him, highest heavens, and the waters above the heavens. *℟

Mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars,
beasts, both wild and tame,
creeping things and birds on the wing. *℟

Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all judges of the earth,
Young men and maidens as well,
the old and the young together.
Let them praise the name of the Lord,
for his name alone is exalted. *℟

His splendor above heaven and earth.
He exalts the strength of his people. *℟

(What will separate us from the love of Christ?)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

[Rom. 8:31b-35, 37-39]

Brothers and sisters:

If God is for us, who can be against us?

He did not spare his own Son

but handed him over for us all,

how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?

It is God who acquits us.

Who will condemn?

It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised,

who also is at the right hand of God,

who indeed intercedes for us.

What will separate us from the love of Christ?

Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine,

or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?

No, in all these things, we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,

nor angels, nor principalities,

nor present things, nor future things,

nor powers, nor height, nor depth,

nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The word of the Lord.

(Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God.)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

[Rom. 12:1-2, 9-13 — short form]

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God,

to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice,

holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship.

Do not conform yourselves to this age

but be transformed by the renewal of your mind,

that you may discern what is the will of God,

what is good and pleasing and perfect.

Let love be sincere;
hate what is evil,
hold on to what is good;
love one another with mutual affection;
anticipate one another in showing honor.

Do not grow slack in zeal,
be fervent in spirit,
serve the Lord.

Rejoice in hope,
endure in affliction,
persevere in prayer.

Contribute to the needs of the holy ones,
exercise hospitality.

The word of the Lord.

New Testament 3

(Welcome one another as Christ welcomed you.)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

[Rom. 15:1b-3a, 5-7, 13]

Brothers and sisters:

We ought to put up with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves;

let each of us please our neighbor for the good,
for building up.

For Christ did not please himself.

May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to think in harmony with one another, in keeping with Christ Jesus,
that with one accord you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, or the glory of God.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

The word of the Lord.

(Your body is a temple of the Spirit.)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

[1 Cor. 6:13c-15a, 17-20]

Brothers and sisters:

The body is not for immorality, but for the Lord,

And the Lord is for the body;

God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power.

Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ?

Whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.

Avoid immorality.

Every other sin a person commits is outside the body,

but the immoral person sins against his own body.

Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own?

For you have been purchased at a price.

Therefore glorify God in your body.

The word of the Lord.

(If I do not have love, I gain nothing.)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

[1 Cor. 12:31-13:8a]

Brothers and sisters:

Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.

But I shall show you a still more excellent way.

If I speak in human and angelic tongues

but do not have love,

I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal.

And if I have the gift of prophecy and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge;

if I have all faith so as to move mountains,

but do not have love, I am nothing.

If I give away everything I own,

and if I hand my body over so that I may boast

but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind.
It is not jealous, is not pompous,
it is not inflated, it is not rude,
it does not seek its own interests,
it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury,
it does not rejoice over wrongdoing
but rejoices with the truth.
It bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things.
Love never fails.

The word of the Lord.

New Testament 6

(One Body and one Spirit.)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians
[Eph. 4:1-6]

Brothers and sisters:

I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received,
with all humility and gentleness, with patience,
bearing with one another through love,
striving to preserve the unity of the Spirit
through the bond of peace: one Body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call;
one Lord, one faith, one baptism;
one God and Father of all,
who is over all and through all and in all.

The word of the Lord.

New Testament 7

(This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the Church.)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians
[Eph. 5:2a, 25-32—short form]

Brothers and sisters:

Live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us.

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the Church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her,
cleansing her by the bath of water with the word,
that he might present to himself the Church in splendor,
without spot or wrinkle or any such thing,
that she might be holy and without blemish.

So also husbands should love their wives as their own bodies.
He who loves his wife loves himself.

For no one hates his own flesh
but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the Church,
because we are members of his Body.

*For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife,
and the two shall become one flesh.*

This is a great mystery,
but I speak in reference to Christ and the Church.

The word of the Lord.

New Testament 8

(The God of peace will be with you.)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians

[Phil. 4:4-9]

Brothers and sisters:

Rejoice in the Lord always.

I shall say it again: rejoice!

Your kindness should be known to all.

The Lord is near.

Have no anxiety at all, but in everything,

by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
make your requests known to God.

Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters,

whatever is true, whatever is honorable,
whatever is just, whatever is pure,

whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious,
if there is any excellence
and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me.

Then the God of peace will be with you.

The word of the Lord.

New Testament 9

(And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection.)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians

[Col 3:12-17]

Brothers and sisters:

Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience,

bearing with one another and forgiving one another,
if one has a grievance against another;
as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do.

And over all these put on love,
that is, the bond of perfection.

And let the peace of Christ control your hearts,
the peace into which you were also called in one Body.

And be thankful.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly,
as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another,
singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.

And whatever you do, in word or in deed,
do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus,
giving thanks to God the Father through him.

The word of the Lord.

New Testament 10

(Let marriage be held in honor by all.)

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

[Heb. 13:1-4a, 5-6b]

Brothers and sisters:

Let mutual love continue.

Do not neglect hospitality,

for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels.

Be mindful of prisoners as if sharing their imprisonment,

and of the ill-treated as of yourselves,

for you also are in the body.

Let marriage be honored among all and the marriage bed be kept undefiled.

Let your life be free from love of money but be content with what you have,

for he has said, I will never forsake you or abandon you.

Thus we may say with confidence:

*The Lord is my helper,
and I will not be afraid.*

The word of the Lord.

New Testament 11

(Be of one mind, sympathetic, loving toward one another.)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Peter

[Pet. 3:1-9]

Beloved:

You wives should be subordinate to your husbands so that, even if some disobey the word,

they may be won over without a word by their wives' conduct when they observe your reverent and chaste behavior.

Your adornment should not be an external one:

braiding the hair, wearing gold jewelry, or dressing

in fine clothes,

but rather the hidden character of the heart,

expressed in the imperishable beauty of a gentle and calm disposition, which is precious in the sight of God.

For this is also how the holy women who hoped in God

once used to adorn themselves and were subordinate to their husbands;

thus Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him "lord."

You are her children when you do what is good and fear no intimidation.

Likewise, you husbands should live with your wives in understanding, showing honor to the weaker female sex, since we are joint heirs of the gift of life, so that your prayers may not be hindered.

Finally, all of you, be of one mind, sympathetic, loving toward one another, compassionate, humble. Do not return evil for evil, or insult for insult; but, on the contrary, a blessing, because to this you were called, that you might inherit a blessing.

The word of the Lord.

New Testament 12

(Love in deed and in truth.)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John

[1 Jn. 3:18-24]

Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth.

Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything.

Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him.

And his commandment is this:

we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us.

Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit that he gave us.

The word of the Lord.

(God is love.)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John

[1 Jn. 4:7-12]

Beloved, let us love one another,
because love is of God;
everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God.
Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love.
In this way the love of God was revealed to us:
God sent his only-begotten Son into the world
so that we might have life through him.
In this is love:
not that we have loved God, but that he loved us
and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.
Beloved, if God so loved us,
we also must love one another.
No one has ever seen God.
Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us,
and his love is brought to perfection in us.

The word of the Lord.

(Blessed are those who have been called to the wedding feast of the Lamb.)

A reading from the Book of Revelation

[Rev. 19:1, 5-9a]

I, John, heard what sounded like the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying:
“Alleluia!
Salvation, glory, and might belong to our God.”

A voice coming from the throne said:

“Praise our God, all you his servants, and you who revere him, small and great.”

Then I heard something like the sound of a great multitude or the sound of rushing water or mighty peals of thunder, as they said:
“Alleluia!

The Lord has established his reign,
our God, the almighty.
Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory.
For the wedding day of the Lamb has come,
his bride has made herself ready.
She was allowed to wear
a bright, clean linen garment.”

(The linen represents the righteous deeds of the holy ones.)

Then the angel said to me, “Write this:
Blessed are those who have been called to the wedding feast of the Lamb.”

The word of the Lord.

Gospel 1

(Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew [Mt. 5:1-12a]

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.
He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.
Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.

Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward will be great in heaven.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 2

(You are the light of the world.)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

[Mt. 5:13-16]

Jesus said to his disciples:

“You are the salt of the earth.

But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned?

It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.

You are the light of the world.

A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.

Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket;

it is set on a lamp stand,

here it gives light to all in the house.

Just so, your light must shine before others,

that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 3

(A wise man built his house on rock.)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

[Mt. 7:21, 24-25—short form]

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’

will enter the Kingdom of heaven,

but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven.

“Everyone who listens to these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock.

The rain fell, the floods came,

and the winds blew and buffeted the house.
But it did not collapse;
it had been set solidly on rock.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 3*

(What God has united, man must not separate.)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

[Mt. 19:3-6]

Some Pharisees approached Jesus, and tested him, saying, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any cause whatever?”

He said in reply, “Have you not read that from the beginning the Creator *made them male and female and said,
For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh?

So they are no longer two, but one flesh.

Therefore, what God has joined together, man must not separate.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 4

(This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it.)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

[Mt. 22:35-40]

One of the Pharisees, a scholar of the law, tested Jesus by asking, “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?”

He said to him,

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart,
with all your soul,
and with all your mind.

This is the greatest and the first commandment.

The second is like it:

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

(They are no longer two, but one flesh.)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

[Mk. 10:6-9]

Jesus said:

“From the beginning of creation,

God made them male and female.

For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother

and be joined to his wife,

and the two shall become one flesh.

So they are no longer two but one flesh.

Therefore what God has joined together,

no human being must separate.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

(Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs in Cana in Galilee.)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

[Jn. 2:1-11]

There was a wedding in Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.

When the wine ran short,

the mother of Jesus said to him,

“They have no wine.”

And Jesus said to her,

“Woman, how does your concern affect me?

My hour has not yet come.”

His mother said to the servers,

“Do whatever he tells you.”

Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings,

each holding twenty to thirty gallons.

Jesus told them,

“Fill the jars with water.”

So they filled them to the brim.

Then he told them,

“Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter.”

So they took it.

And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from

(although the servants who had drawn the water knew),

the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him,

“Everyone serves good wine first,

and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one;

but you have kept the good wine until now.”

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs in Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory,

and his disciples began to believe in him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 7

(Remain in my love.)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

[Jn. 15:9-12]

Jesus said to his disciples:

“As the Father loves me, so I also love you.

Remain in my love.

If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love.

“I have told you this so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete.

This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 8

(This is my commandment: love one another.)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

[Jn. 15:12-16]

Jesus said to his disciples:

“This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.

No one has greater love than this,

to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.

You are my friends if you do what I command you.

I no longer call you slaves,
because a slave does not know what his master is doing.
I have called you friends,
because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father.
It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 9

(That they may be brought to perfection as one.)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

[Jn. 17:20-23—short form]

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said:

“Holy Father, I pray not only for these,
but also for those who will believe in me through their word,
so that they may all be one,
as you, Father, are in me and I in you,
that they also may be in us,
that the world may believe that you sent me.

And I have given them the glory you gave me,
so that they may be one, as we are one,
I in them and you in me,
that they may be brought to perfection as one,
that the world may know that you sent me,
and that you loved them even as you loved me.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Prayer of Spouses for Each Other

Dear God,

Grant us the grace to live with one another in peace and harmony until death do us part. May we bear with one another's weaknesses and strengthen one another's good qualities.

Help us to forgive one another's failings. Grant us patience, kindness, cheerfulness, and a spirit of placing the welfare of one another ahead of self.

Through Jesus Christ,
Your only Son, our Lord.

Amen.
