28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."
- Mk 10:26-27

Wise words from Father David

Have you ever had to hold back tears? Maybe for the sake of a small child? An elderly parent? Someone in crisis or one experiencing a trauma where you had to be the strong one? I had a spiritually enlightened moment standing under the Station of the Cross "Jesus Dies on the Cross". This happened years ago while I was pastor of Immaculate Conception Church in Pine City, MN. Looking up at the figures I noticed the figure of Mary had painted on her cheek a small tear. The thought came to me instantly "Mary didn't cry". Here's why.

First of all, she wanted to be Jesus' strength. Like a parent in a family crisis needing to demonstrate courage and faith, she held back tears. Second, she knew the end of the story wasn't here, in this place, that there would be more to the story. To that point Mary had a deep understanding of Sacred Scripture plus, she had over 25 years of living with Jesus, talking with Jesus, praying with Jesus and so she knew a great deal about Salvation History. Finally, remember that Mary was conceived without Original Sin and so the following list are the characteristics she would have experienced (in a normal human being) but didn't:

- Original Sin causes ignorance
- Original Sin causes malice
- Original Sin causes weakness
- Original Sin causes a propensity to sin
- Original Sin causes a decrease in our awareness of God
- Original Sin causes an increase in our volatility towards God
- Original Sin causes an increase in antipathy with other humans
- Original Sin causes humans to be subject to death

Given all these things I have no doubt that the Blessed Virgin Mary experienced the Crucifixion in a completely different way than anyone who was there or with anyone who has ever lived. She was a Temple of the Holy Spirit, when He looked down on her she was His grace, His rock, His foundation. When Jesus gave her to St. John "Behold your Mother" Jesus gave her to us. In doing so He betrothed everything she did for Him to us as well. It is why Catholics have such a deep devotion to her. It is why we pray the rosary, in order to be in her presence, to stand at the foot of the cross to be amazed by her strength and holiness.

Scripture does not reveal what Mary may have said to Jesus, I imagine that her personal words to Him, followed this train of thought.

"Be not afraid" "Keep your eyes on me" "I love you, trust in me and in your Father"

"Offer your pain for souls" "Let go now Jesus, it's ok" "You are not alone"

"We love you Jesus" "I'm here"

The mysteries of the rosary are full of opportunities to meditate in this way that is, from the perspective of Mary. The Stations of the Cross are as well. We need to slow down our prayer and take advantage of the Holy Spirit's guidance. I hope that I may have inspired you to be more present in prayer to the movement of Mary. Like Mary at the foot of the cross where she shed no tears.

ADORATION

Our Mission Field will be blessed to have people praying in ALL four of our parishes each week before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Stop by and “rest” with the Lord and grow in slowing down and praying each week. We continue to invite our parishioners to commit to a specific time to pray each week. Imagine if we could get 250 people from our Mission Field committed to praying one hour a week before our Lord. Our Mission Field would become a place of miraculous things as more and more make Jesus in the Eucharist the heart of everything. Check out our weekly schedule on the front of this bulletin and call the office if you are willing to commit to a weekly time. We can’t do this if we don’t have people willing to commit.

WOMEN’S BIBLE STUDIES

Calling all ladies of the Mission Field. Are you ready to make authentic connections with other women, refuel and refresh, and learn more about God? If so, please consider joining us as we start two Walking with Purpose Bible studies. Both studies will start on Sunday, October 20 at Holy Spirit Parish in Virginia. Our first Bible study will be Opening Your Heart. It will be from 4:30pm-6pm on Sunday evenings. This is for anyone who did not participate last year or who is new to Women’s Bible Studies.

For those that have participated in our past Bible studies, please join us for the other one we will be offering called Touching the Divine. This one will also be held on Sunday evenings from 6:15pm-7:45pm.
